

Request for a D number

Send to:

The Brønnøysund Register Centre
P.O. Box 900
 NO-8910 BRØNNØYSUND

The form is for the use of foreign nationals who do not already have a Norwegian personal ID number or D number, but who need a D number in connection with registration with the Brønnøysund Register Centre.

You must fill in all the fields in the form. You must also enclose a certified copy of valid proof of identity that contains a photo, your full name, date of birth and gender, the expiry date and your nationality – for example a passport or national ID card. The copy must either be certified by a Norwegian public authority, a Norwegian lawyer, a Norwegian authorised accountant, a Norwegian state authorised or registered auditor, a Nordic police authority or a Nordic embassy, or by a foreign entity with notary powers. The copy must also be stamped by the entity certifying the document.

If the application concerns persons who are to be registered with a role in the Central Coordinating Register for Legal Entities/Register of Business Enterprises and it does not accompany the Coordinated Register Notification form, you must enclose documentation confirming that you have been assigned a role in the entity. In the case of a sole proprietorship, you must enclose a declaration stating which type of business activity is involved and its expected scope.
