

Application for a D-number for simultaneous registration with the Brønnøysund Register Centre

The form is used by foreign nationals who do not already have a Norwegian personal ID number or D-number, but who need a D-number at the same time as registration with the Brønnøysund Register Centre.

You must enclose a certified copy of valid proof of identity that contains a photo, your full name, date of birth, gender, the expiry date, citizenship and control lines – for example a passport or national ID card.

The copy must either be certified by a Norwegian public authority, a Norwegian lawyer, a Norwegian authorised accountant, a Norwegian state authorised or registered auditor, a Nordic police authority or by a foreign entity with notary powers. The copy must be certified with the original signature and stamp from the entity making the copy.

Together with the application for a D-number you must submit the notification of registration or a document for official registration.
